Officers Return To Murder Scene Hunting For Clues

In an effort to find the killers of a young Rancho Cordova couple, the Sacramento Sheriff's department returned to the scene of the crime

Reno Train Trip Rescheduled

The local Mental Health Association's weekend train excursion to Reno, postponed last month, has been rescheduled for March 31, the group announced.

The $85 "Fun Trip to Reno" includes round trip train fare, lodgings and some meals. An association spokesman said the fare is tax deductible as a contribution.

The train, which will have a dancing area and a band playing continuously en route, is scheduled to leave the Southern Pacific Depot, 4th and I streets, at 8:40 p.m. on Friday, March 31, and arrive back at the depot at 4 p.m. Sunday, April 2.

Tickets and more information are available from the association's office, 1401 21st Street, or at the Sacramento Board of Realtor's office, 6020 Retland Drive, Carmichael.

Correction

The Bee erroneously reported in Thursday's editions that former San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto will speak at the Lou Ashe Practical Legal Symposium at McGeorge School of Law Saturday. The speaker is the son of the former mayor.

Thursday night, hoping to develop new leads:

Sgt. Brian Maggiore, 21, and his wife Katie, 20, were shot to death six weeks ago as they walked their dog in Rancho Cordova. A dozen investigators went door to door Thursday night, talking to residents on La Gloria and La Alegria Drives about what they might have seen the night of the murders.

Maggiore was found shot in the chest in the backyard at 10165 La Alegria Drive. His wife was found a short distance away with a head wound.

The Bee's Secret Witness program is offering a $2,500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killers.

Area Nurses Reach Accord

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - A tentative settlement was reached Friday, averting a threatened strike by registered nurses in 20 hospital and three clinics in Northern California. The talks affected 13 Kaiser Permanente hospitals and three from San Jose to Sacramento. Seven independent hospitals are associated with Kaiser Permanente in Berkeley and San Francisco.
