

Woman Found Bludgeoned to Death in Her Apartment.

Los Angeles Times, 16 May 1979

Irvine—A 22-year old woman was found bludgeoned to death in her bedroom here, police said Friday.

The woman, Savannah Leigh Anderson, a secretary, had been dead a number of hours when her body was discovered early Monday evening. Police said she had been struck in the head and that there were signs of a struggle in the bedroom.

Investigator Gary Cain said Ms Anderson's boyfriend, Gene Williams Mills, Jr., had gone to the dead woman's apartment for a 6 p.m. date but got no answer at the door. Seeing her car parked nearby, he called the apartment and again received no answer, Cain said. Mills then called police.

A policeman responded to the call and entered the apartment. The woman's nude body was found in her bedroom.

Cain said Ms. Anderson had lived in Orange County for about a year and originally was from Salt Lake City. He said she did not go to work on Monday. He would not reveal the name of the company where she had been employed.
